Ignite your Holy Week with a Passover Bonfire and 24-Hour Prayer Vigil that begins at Sunset (7:18pm) on Sunday, March 28. Come and be inspired by the story of St. Patrick's Passover Bonfire that eventually set all of Ireland ablaze with the liberating gospel of Christ. Come join us in praying for a spring-like renewal and restoration that would bless the Fox Lake Community and the entire surrounding rural area. Come share in the prayer and hope that every person in the Fox Lake area would meet and know the Risen Savior, Jesus Christ, and serve Him as their Lord. Yes, come and worship Jesus the "King of Creation" with us around a glowing Passover Bonfire! (Unless it's raining, windy or cold this event will be outdoors--please dress accordingly!) Meet at Sunset (7:18pm) by the fire ring on the hill behind church. BRING YOUR OWN CAMP CHAIRS and yes, following a time of singing, sharing and prayer, you are welcome to stay and roast hot dogs, marshmallows, or whatever. You can also participate in the 24-Hour Prayer Vigil by signing up for a time slot by the information table and bulletin board. If you have a personal or community concern, or a thanksgiving to share, please e-mail it to pastorvanee@yahoo.com to be included in the printed prayer guide that will be distributed on March 28. Submissions must be received by Thursday, March 25. Do you know who held the first Prayer Vigil ever? Check out Exodus 12:42.
