

Joshua - Courage, Crossing, Consecration Courage to Embrace Change

Joshua 1:1-18

June 1, 2008

1. When have you had to embrace change?
2. What changes did Joshua and the people of Israel face, and what do we learn about embracing change from this passage?
3. What makes change difficult? What are some of the benefits of change? What are the ways that you see the world changing—for the good and for the bad?
4. What changes are you facing in your life today? What makes these changes difficult? What is something exciting that may come from this change?
5. What are some of the most productive changes you have made in your life? What are the things that helped you make those changes?
